THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

Union tent, I. O. of R., gave an entertainment Tuesday night at their hall, on Ninth street northwest. Among those who took part were Charles Houser, Mr. R. Hunt, the Misses Lemmon, Mrs. Florence Leach, H. A. Graham, L. P. Wild, Miss Hahitt, D. Smithson, T. O. Politz, and Edmund Burke.

Building permits were issued yesterday to G. Bianj, repair brick, 133 B street southeast, $275; F. C. Linger, erect seven two-story dwellings in alley between Eighteenth and Nineteenth and L and M streets northwest, $4,100; A. R. Copes, erect a two-story and basement dwelling, I street, between North Capitol and First street northwest, $3,500.

A new division of Sons of Temperance, named Sparkling Water division, No. 18, was instituted Tuesday night, at Eighth and L streets southeast, with the following officers: Howard O. Emmons, P. W. P.; William J. Webb, W. P.; Mrs. Mary C. Walker, W. A.; C. L. Alexander, R. S.; James S. Kramer, A. R. S.; Edwin Turner, F. S.; Richard B. Walker, treasurer; Rev. Samuel Kramer, chap.; F. A. Good style is good sense, good health, good energy, and good will, but a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a good benefactor that suffering humanity has already learned to appreciate.

After a Dog With a Shotgun.
The novel sight of a man gunning for a dog in the large square which surrounds the residence of the Swiss minister, on Capitol hill, was witnessed yesterday afternoon by a crowd of boys and men. The animal had, it was alleged, annoyed sundry people in the neighborhood in company with a troop of other canines. Complaint was made and a shotgun, loaded with buckshot, was kept at the station house in readiness for it. This dog, which appeared to be the ringleader of the canine crowd, passed the station house about 12:30 o'clock and received the contents of one barrel of the gun. The load did not kill the animal and it rushed howling into the Swiss minister's yard. Here the other load was fired at it. The second charge still did not kill the dog, and it was not until the gun was reloaded and discharged again into the poor dog's body that death was caused. When the last shot was fired the dog was propped on its fore legs with its body covered with wounds. The future historian will number dog hunting as one of the sports of the American people. Meantime the agent of the S. P. C. A. was not around.

In conversing lately with one of our reporters, Mr. Clarence D. Gregory, 291 Broadway, New York, told of his terrible experience with sciatie rheumatism and lumbago, and used the following oil, and soon was as well as ever.—Brooklyn Eagle.

EMIGRANTS and travelers will find in Ayer's Sarsaparilla an effectual cure for the eruptions, boils, pimples, eczema, &c., that break out on the skin—the effects of disorder in the blood caused by sea diet and life on board ship. It is the best medicine for everyone in the spring.
